1.0 Introduction

1. Pursuant to an order (the “Initial Order”) granted by the Court of King’s Bench of Alberta (the “Court”) on June 22, 2023 (the “Filing Date”), Wallace & Carey Inc. (“Wallace & Carey”), Loudon Bros Limited (“Loudon Bros”, and together with Wallace & Carey, the “Logistics Companies”), and Carey Management Inc. (“CMI”, and together with the Logistics Companies, the “Companies”) were granted protection under the Companies’ Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36, as amended (the “CCAA”), and KSV Restructuring Inc. (“KSV”) was appointed monitor (the “Monitor”) of the Companies (the “CCAA Proceedings”).
2. On June 30, 2023, the Court granted an Amended and Restated Initial Order (the “ARIO”).
3. Pursuant to an order granted by the Court on August 23, 2023, the Companies carried out a sale and investment solicitation process (the “SISP”) that resulted in a transaction (the “Transaction”) between the Companies and 7-Eleven Canada, Inc. (“7-Eleven”) that was approved by the Court on November 17, 2023, pursuant to an approval and vesting order (the “Transaction Approval and Vesting Order”) and other orders (together with the Transaction Approval and Vesting Order, the “Transaction Orders”).
4. Pursuant to the Transaction Orders, the Court among other things:
 - a) approved a sale of certain of the Companies’ property, assets and undertakings to 7-Eleven, primarily fixed assets and real property;
 - b) approved a transition services agreement (the “TSA”) among CMI, Wallace & Carey, the Monitor, and 7-Eleven, as more fully discussed in the sixth report of the Monitor dated November 8, 2023, but, importantly, saw Wallace & Carey continue to carry out the normal course operations of the business during the TSA period, which is continuing; and
 - c) appointed KSV as receiver of all of the assets, undertakings, and properties of certain subsidiaries of CMI for the purpose of, among other things, selling certain real property owned by these entities to 7-Eleven.
5. A copy of the TSA is attached as Appendix “A”.

6. On November 25, 2024, upon an application by the Companies, the Court granted an order, among other things, extending the stay of proceedings in these CCAA Proceedings to and including April 30, 2025 (the “Stay Period”).
7. As noted, Wallace & Carey continues to carry on day-to-day business during these CCAA Proceedings, which is largely limited to servicing its largest customer, 7-Eleven. The TSA, among other things, sets out the terms under which Wallace & Carey will continue to operate under CCAA protection. The duration of the TSA is 15 months and nine months for the Western Business and the Eastern Business (both as defined in the TSA), respectively, from November 21, 2023 (i.e., the Effective Date of the TSA), subject in each case to two 90-day extensions that are available to 7-Eleven.
8. Pursuant to the TSA, 7-Eleven is responsible to fund substantially all of Wallace & Carey’s operational costs, including employee costs associated with approximately 450 employees, real property and personal property leases, and other contracts, as well as the fees and costs of the Monitor and its counsel, and certain fees of the Companies’ counsel.
9. DigiFlex Information Systems Inc. (“DigiFlex”) is an Alberta corporation with a registered office in Calgary, Alberta. The sole director and voting shareholder of DigiFlex is Mr. Mohamad Zāhed Mardukhi (“Mr. Mardukhi”). DigiFlex provides software and support services on which Wallace & Carey is reliant to operate.
10. As discussed in further detail below, DigiFlex is seeking to either increase the price of its services to Wallace & Carey by 304%, such amount being far in excess of what is permitted by the applicable agreements between the parties, plus a new $3.23 million fee not otherwise payable under those agreements, and has terminated such agreements effective January 1, 2025 in order to leverage such increased amounts. These actions are contrary to the ARIO and require the urgent intervention of this Honourable Court.
11. Court materials filed in these proceedings are available on the Monitor’s case website at www.ksvadvisory.com/experience/case/wallace-and-carey (the “Case Website”).
12. KSV is filing this fourteenth report (the “Report”) as Monitor of the Companies.

1.1 Purposes of this Report

1. The purpose of this Report is to provide information to the Court in support of the Monitor's application for an order, among other things:
 - a) declaring that DigiFlex's purported termination, price increases, and all other amendments to the DigiFlex Agreements (as defined below) and any other agreement for services between DigiFlex and the Companies are in breach of paragraphs 18 and 19 of the ARIO and of no force and effect;
 - b) requiring DigiFlex and Mr. Mardukhi, as sole director and voting shareholder of DigiFlex, to continue to provide Wallace & Carey with services and software on the terms and in the manner prescribed by the DigiFlex Agreements, and at an annual rate that shall not exceed $290,093.70, representing 103.5% of the 2024 rates (the "Allowable Rate Increase"), unless otherwise agreed to by DigiFlex, Wallace & Carey and the Monitor in writing;
 - c) restraining DigiFlex and Mr. Mardukhi, or any other party on direction from DigiFlex or Mardukhi, from terminating or otherwise interfering with the terms of the DigiFlex Agreements and the services provided thereunder; and
 - d) ordering DigiFlex and Mr. Mardukhi to pay costs of the Monitor's application on a solicitor and own client, full indemnity basis in the amount of $35,000.

1.2 Scope and Terms of Reference

1. In preparing this Report, the Monitor has relied upon the Companies' unaudited financial information, books and records, and discussions with 7-Eleven, 7-Eleven's counsel, the Companies' management, and the Companies' legal counsel.
2. The Monitor has not audited or otherwise attempted to verify the accuracy or completeness of the financial information relied on to prepare this Report in a manner that complies with Canadian Auditing Standards ("CAS") pursuant to the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada Handbook and, accordingly, the Monitor expresses no opinion or other form of assurance contemplated under the CAS in respect of such information. Any party wishing to place reliance on the financial information should perform its own diligence.

3. An examination of any forward-looking financial information discussed herein has not been performed in accordance with the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada Handbook. Forward-looking financial forecasts and information are based upon various assumptions. Actual results achieved may vary materially from the forecasted results. The Monitor expresses no opinion or other form of assurance on whether the Companies' businesses will perform in accordance with their financial forecasts and projections.

1.3 Currency

1. All references to currency in this Report are to Canadian dollars.

2.0 Companies' Background

1. CMI is an Alberta corporation and the sole shareholder of Wallace & Carey, which is the sole shareholder of Loudon Bros. In addition to the Logistics Companies, CMI has ownership interests in nine subsidiaries, none of which are subject to the CCAA Proceedings.
2. Wallace & Carey is an Alberta corporation that is extra-provincially registered to conduct business in most provinces and territories in Canada. Wallace & Carey operates as a distribution and logistics business that supplies and distributes products to customer locations from Ontario to British Columbia. Wallace & Carey's most significant customer, by far, is 7-Eleven.
3. Loudon Bros, located in Thunder Bay, Ontario, is an Ontario corporation that is wholly owned by Wallace & Carey, which, until late 2023, operated as Wallace & Carey's Northwestern Ontario branch. As part of the downsizing of their businesses during these proceedings, the Companies discontinued the Loudon Bros business and realized on all of its assets.
4. Pursuant to the terms of the Transaction Approval and Vesting Order and the TSA, Wallace & Carey continues to carry on active business operations. As provided in the TSA, and subject to the terms and conditions of the TSA, from and after 12:01 a.m. on November 19, 2023 (the "Effective Closing Time"), 7-Eleven is responsible for funding substantially all post-Effective Closing Time costs of Wallace & Carey's operations and is entitled to any profits or is responsible for any losses resulting therefrom.

3.0 The DigiFlex Agreements

1. DigiFlex and Wallace & Carey have a long-standing business relationship spanning approximately 24 years, whereby DigiFlex licenses to Wallace & Carey certain enterprise resource planning computer program software¹ (the “Software”) and provides it with helpdesk support in respect of the Software.
2. To the best of the Monitor’s knowledge, Mr. Mardukhi is the controlling mind of DigiFlex and directs its operations. Pursuant to an Alberta corporate profile report dated December 11, 2024 (the “Corporate Profile”), DigiFlex is not in good standing as its 2024 annual returns have not been completed. A copy of the Corporate Profile is attached as Appendix “B”.
3. The Monitor is aware of the following agreements between DigiFlex and Wallace & Carey:
 - a) Software License Agreement dated August 19, 2013 (the “Software Agreement”), which references a Maintenance Agreement attached thereto as Schedule “A” (the “Maintenance Agreement”); and
 - b) Helpdesk Support Agreement, a copy of which the Monitor has not received and/or reviewed (the “Support Agreement”);

(collectively, the Software Agreement, Support Agreement, and any other agreement for services between DigiFlex and the Companies shall be referred to as the “DigiFlex Agreements”).
4. Copies of the DigiFlex Agreements are attached as Appendix “C”.
5. As of the date of this Report, the Monitor and the Companies have not been able to locate an executed or dated copy of the Maintenance Agreement or a copy of the Support Agreement.

¹ The Software includes, among other things, the following applications: (i) ProCLASS Distribution Management System; (ii) Runtime Version LAZER DBMS; (iii) CLASS Accounts Receivable; (iv) CLASS Accounts Payable; (v) CLASS General Ledger; and (vi) CLASS Bank Reconciliation.

6. The Software licensed to Wallace & Carey under the DigiFlex Agreements is integral to its operations, as the Software is utilized for all aspects of Wallace & Carey's operations including distribution management, financial reporting and business intelligence. Without access to the Software, the Monitor understands that it would be impossible for Wallace & Carey to continue to operate.
7. The Monitor understands that the Software runs on servers located at Wallace & Carey's offices. If the DigiFlex Agreements are allowed to terminate effective January 1, 2025, Wallace & Carey will lose access to critical support and maintenance through DigiFlex.
8. The key terms of the Software Agreement are, among others, the following:
 - a) Wallace & Carey agreed to pay $300,000 for an unlimited-use license-to-use agreement, which amount was paid by way of an initial payment of $150,000 on April 23, 2012, with the remaining $150,000 paid on the execution of the Software Agreement on August 19, 2013;
 - b) all rates specified in the Software Agreement (including the fees payable under the Maintenance Agreement) are fixed for the first 12-month period (starting in August, 2013), after which DigiFlex may increase the price payable by Wallace & Carey upon providing at least 30 days advance written notice to Wallace & Carey. The percentage increase shall not exceed the Consumer Price Index for that period as published by Statistics Canada for the City of Calgary, or in the alternative, the province of Alberta or Canada; and
 - c) in addition to the rates described in paragraph 7(b), Wallace & Carey is also responsible for certain service fees on an hourly basis. Historically, hourly service fees are invoiced to and paid by Wallace & Carey as soon as the service request is completed by DigiFlex.
9. There is no set term or expiration date for the Software Agreement.
10. The key terms of the Maintenance Agreement are, among others, the following:
 - a) Wallace & Carey agreed to pay an annual maintenance services fee for three software packages in an amount of $28,350 ($9,450 per software package) for one year, to be paid in advance (the "Maintenance Charge"). Additional fees apply to install the software packages in multiple branches on additional server systems;

- b) the term of the Maintenance Agreement began on the date of software installation and automatically renews for successive one-year terms to be agreed upon by the parties at the time of renewal, unless the agreement is terminated. The Maintenance Agreement is terminated by either party serving written notice to the other at least 30 days prior to the expiration of the initial term or renewal, in which case the Maintenance Agreement terminates at the end of that term or renewal; and
 - c) the Maintenance Charge is fixed for a 12-month period, after which DigiFlex may increase the price payable by Wallace & Carey upon providing at least 30 days advance written notice prior to the end of the then current term to Wallace & Carey. The percentage increase shall not exceed the Consumer Price Index for that period as published by Statistics Canada for the City of Calgary, or in the alternative, the province of Alberta or Canada. Historically, DigiFlex invoiced renewal fees for the Maintenance Agreement in February of each calendar year.
11. As 7-Eleven is responsible for funding the operational costs of Wallace & Carey until February 2025 (or potentially longer) under the terms of the TSA, 7-Eleven has been in direct communications with DigiFlex in relation to its services and the costs thereof since the Transaction closed on November 19, 2023.

4.0 Communications with DigiFlex

1. On October 7, 2024, Mr. Mardukhi was informed via email that 7-Eleven would be taking an assignment of the DigiFlex Agreements in accordance with the Transaction. 7-Eleven also requested that the existing agreements between DigiFlex and Wallace & Carey, under which the rates expire on January 31 and March 12, 2025 for the Support Agreement and Maintenance Agreement, respectively,² be renewed for a one-year term (the “October 7 & 8 Email Exchange”). A copy of the October 7 & 8 Email Exchange is attached as Appendix “D”.
2. On October 15, 2024, Mr. Mardukhi responded to 7-Eleven’s request to renew the existing agreements (the “October 15 Email Exchange”). Mr. Mardukhi offered to renew the Support Agreement for a one-year term for $201,599.54 ($192,000.00 plus applicable taxes) (the “Support Agreement Renewal Invoice”), but indicated that a new Maintenance Agreement with 7-Eleven may be required. A representative of 7-Eleven responded advising that: (i) 7-Eleven did not intend to buy a new licensing agreement; (ii) after seeking legal advice, 7-Eleven was of the opinion the DigiFlex Agreements would be in full force and effect on the current terms; and (iii) recommended that DigiFlex consult legal counsel. A copy of the October 15 Email Exchange is attached as Appendix “E”.

3. On November 12, 2024, DigiFlex sent to 7-Eleven Distribution Canada Corporation (“SEDCC”) (a new entity created with the intention of eventually assuming the distribution role currently performed by Wallace & Carey) a new Software License Agreement (the “New License Agreement”), which provided for the payment of $3.23 million for an unlimited use license, and it affixed a Maintenance Agreement that required an annual payment of $847,875 ($807,000 plus applicable taxes). Following that email, on November 14, 2024, Mr. Mardukhi, on behalf of DigiFlex, sent an email to SEDCC (the “November 14 Email”) that included:
 - a) an invoice for license fees (the “License Fee Invoice”) totaling $3,391,500 ($3,230,000 plus applicable taxes) for the period of November 1, 2024 to October 31, 2025;
 - b) an invoice for one year of Software maintenance totaling $847,875 ($807,500 plus applicable taxes (the “Maintenance Agreement Renewal Invoice”);
 - c) an invoice for helpdesk support for the period November 1, 2024 to October 31, 2025 totaling $201,560 ($191,199 plus applicable taxes) (the “Help Desk Invoice”, and together with the License Fee Invoice and Maintenance Agreement Renewal Invoice, the “Renewal Invoices”); and
 - d) a notice that several service invoices (the “Service Invoices”) were overdue. 7-Eleven advised the Monitor that the Service Invoices discussed in the November 14 Email related to hourly support services provided by DigiFlex, and were promptly paid.

Copies of the November 14 Email, the New License Agreement, and the Renewal Invoices are attached as Appendices “F”, “G”, and “H”, respectively.

4. In addition to the $3.23 million license fee that is not payable under the existing DigiFlex Agreements, the Renewal Invoices contained in the November 14 Email total approximately $1,049,475, representing an increase of approximately 304%, which is well in excess of the Allowable Rate Increase provided for in the DigiFlex Agreements.

5. On November 25, 2024, Mr. Mardukhi responded to a service request from representatives of Wallace & Carey and informed Wallace & Carey that DigiFlex does not have a maintenance or licensing agreement with SEDCC and that the DigiFlex Agreements had not been in effect for some time (the “November 25 Email”). Mr. Mardukhi informed Wallace & Carey that SEDCC had been sent new agreements which had not been signed, nor had outstanding invoices been paid (which 7-Eleven understood was a reference to the Renewal Invoices). Mr. Mardukhi advised that DigiFlex could complete the work requested by Wallace & Carey, but it would only do so at the “new SEDCC hourly rate of $250.00”. A copy of the November 25 Email is attached as Appendix “I”.
6. On December 3, 2024, Mr. Mardukhi informed 7-Eleven that due to 7-Eleven’s lack of response or acknowledgement of the New License Agreement and overdue invoices (i.e., the Renewal Invoices), he assumed DigiFlex’s services were no longer required (the “First December 3 Email”). Mr. Mardukhi requested that 7-Eleven inform Wallace & Carey of the change and requested that the software and documentation held by Wallace & Carey be destroyed according to the DigiFlex Agreements. A copy of the First December 3 Email is attached as Appendix “J”.
7. Shortly after receipt of the December 3 Initial Email, the Monitor attempted to phone Mr. Mardukhi but there was no answer. The Monitor left a voicemail to be returned (the “December 3 Voicemail”).
8. Mr. Mardukhi responded to the December 3 Voicemail via email on December 3, 2024 (the “Second December 3 Email”), insisting that he did not threaten to terminate the DigiFlex Agreements. Mr. Mardukhi asserted that some of the DigiFlex Agreements are non-transferrable, and since 7-Eleven is a different company than Wallace & Carey, it would require a new agreement with DigiFlex. Further, Mr. Mardukhi claimed that the DigiFlex Agreements should not have been in effect after the Transaction Approval and Vesting Order because “...Wallace & Carey became a division of 7-Eleven as of November 2023...”. Mr. Mardukhi again requested that 7-Eleven sign a new license agreement with DigiFlex. A copy of the Second December 3 Email is attached as Appendix “K”. It is clear from Mr. Mardukhi’s various email correspondence, that he does not seem to understand the structure of the Transaction and the purpose of the TSA, as he claims that Wallace & Carey is no longer operating.

9. After receipt of the Second December 3 Email, counsel for the Monitor sent a letter to Mr. Mardukhi on behalf of DigiFlex (the “December 3 Letter”), among other things:
 - a) informing DigiFlex that the statement “...Wallace & Carey became a division of 7-Eleven as of November 2023...” is incorrect and that during the course of the CCAA Proceedings, Wallace & Carey has continued to operate in the ordinary course of business;
 - b) informing DigiFlex that its demand for a new agreement with 7-Eleven and threat to terminate the DigiFlex Agreements was prohibited according to the terms of the ARIO;
 - c) directing DigiFlex to contact the Monitor before 5:00 p.m. (MT) on December 6, 2024 (the “Deadline”) to discuss terms for renewal of the Software Agreement and correct the breach of the ARIO out of Court;
 - d) advising DigiFlex that if it did not respond to the Monitor’s Letter by the Deadline, the Companies, with the support of the Monitor, would bring a court application to compel DigiFlex’s cooperation; and
 - e) recommending that DigiFlex seek independent counsel.

A copy of the December 3 Letter is attached is attached as Appendix “L”.

10. On December 3, 2024, Mr. Mardukhi requested that the Monitor have its counsel review the Second December 3 Email. The Monitor’s counsel replied that, after reviewing the Second December 3 Email, the Monitor’s position remained unchanged (the “December 3 Response Emails”). Copies of the December 3 Response Emails are attached Appendix “M”.
11. On December 5, 2024, Mr. Mardukhi responded to the Monitor’s Letter (the “December 5 Email”) wherein he refused to engage legal counsel in the matter and offered two options:
 - a) the first was 7-Eleven signing a new license agreement and paying “overdue” invoices; and
 - b) the second was to terminate support, maintenance, and helpdesk services on January 1, 2025. DigiFlex remarked it “would rather shut down its software than provide services under threats and intimidation.”

A copy of the December 5 Email and the response to the same is attached as Appendix “N”.

12. On December 9, 2024, by way of an email, DigiFlex informed Wallace & Carey that it would not provide maintenance or helpdesk services to Wallace & Carey after January 1, 2025. DigiFlex separately informed the Monitor it would not discuss the DigiFlex Agreements and claimed that 7-Eleven does not have a right to use DigiFlex’s software (the “Initial December 9 Emails”). Copies of the Initial December 9 Emails are attached as Appendix “O”.
13. Shortly after receipt of the December 9 Email, the Monitor again attempted to phone Mr. Mardukhi but there was no answer. The Monitor left a voicemail to be returned (the “December 9 Voicemail”).
14. Mr. Mardukhi responded to the December 9 Voicemail via email on December 9, 2024 (the “Second December 9 Email”), stating that: “a conversation between us will not help since our problem is not with you or your firm or with whatever is left of Wallace & Carey. Rather, our problem is with 7-Eleven that do not understand they have no legal right to use our software without first purchasing a software license, and signing our License and Maintenance Agreement that was passed on to them back in November”. A copy of the Second December 9 Email is attached as Appendix “P”.
15. On December 11, 2024, Mr. Mardukhi sent an email on behalf of DigiFlex (the “December 11 Email”) to representatives of 7-Eleven which reads as follows (emphasis added):

Good day,

Since you have decided to proceed with court action (see email below), this is our formal notice that we will stop our support, maintenance and helpdesk services on January 1st, 2025. This will be the case regardless of the court outcome.

We will then proceed with our own legal action to stop the use of our software without a license.

Even if you believe that our client is still Wallace & Carey and that our license agreement with them is still at play, you should be aware that point 5 of our license agreement states:

In the event that Digiflex breaches any of its obligations, or if Digiflex becomes insolvent, or files a petition in bankruptcy, then the Customer may, at its option terminate the License To Use granted hereunder upon written notice to Digiflex.

In the event of a termination of the License hereunder, the Package and all copies thereof shall forthwith be returned to Digiflex or, at Digiflex's option, destroyed or erased from electronic memories or other storage devices and thereafter Customer shall deliver to Digiflex a letter, from an officer of the Customer, certifying that all copies of the Software and any code or listings produced by the Software have been destroyed, returned or erased and that the Customer has discontinued use of the Package.

Regards,

Mohamad Zähed Mardukhi

16. A copy of the December 11 Email is attached as Appendix "Q".
17. In response to the December 11 Email, counsel for the Monitor sent a letter to Mr. Mardukhi on December 12, 2024 (the "December 12 Letter"), among other things, advising that:
 - a) the December 11 Email was going to be provided to the Court; and
 - b) should Mr. Mardukhi undertake the actions referenced in the December 11 Email, the Monitor would, among other things, seek a contempt order and Mr. Mardukhi's imprisonment.

A copy of the December 12 Letter is attached as Appendix "R".

18. Upon receipt of the December 12 Letter, Mr. Mardukhi, on behalf of DigiFlex, emailed representatives of 7-Eleven (the "December 12 Response Email"). In the December 12 Response Email, Mr. Mardukhi acknowledged receipt of the December 12 Letter and clearly understood of its contents. Mr. Mardukhi remarked to 7-Eleven "Hope you are still running a successful business when I get out of prison!". A copy of the December 12 Response Email is attached as Appendix "S".

5.0 Monitor's Recommendations

1. Pursuant to paragraph 19 of the ARIO, suppliers are compelled to provide services to the Companies during the CCAA Proceedings in accordance with the terms of existing agreements. Paragraph 19 of the ARIO reads (emphasis added):

19. During the Stay Period, all persons having:

(a) statutory or regulatory mandates for the supply of goods and/or services; or

(b) oral or written agreements or arrangements with the [Companies], including without limitation all supply arrangements pursuant to purchase orders and historical supply practices, computer software, communication and other data services, centralized banking services, payroll services, insurance, transportation, services, utility or other services to the Business or the [Companies], are hereby restrained until further Order of this Court from discontinuing, altering, interfering with, suspending or terminating the supply of such goods or services as may be required by the [Companies] or exercising any other remedy provided under such agreements or arrangements. The [Companies] shall be entitled to the continued use of their current premises, telephone numbers, facsimile numbers, internet addresses and domain names, provided in each case that the usual prices or charges for all such goods or services received after the date of this Order are paid by the [Companies] in accordance with the payment practices of the [Companies], or such other practices as may be agreed upon by the supplier or service provider and each of the [Companies] and the Monitor, or as may be ordered by this Court.

2. Further, paragraph 18 of the ARIO reads (emphasis added):

18. During the Stay Period, no person shall accelerate, suspend, discontinue, fail to honour, alter, interfere with, repudiate, terminate or cease to perform any right, renewal right, contract, agreement, licence or permit in favour of or held by the [Companies], except with the written consent of the [Companies] and the Monitor, or leave of this Court.

3. As discussed above, DigiFlex is seeking to increase the prices payable by Wallace & Carey under the DigiFlex Agreements, terminate, or otherwise amend the terms of the DigiFlex Agreements. This conduct is very clearly contrary to the terms of the ARIO.
4. Mr. Mardukhi has refused to engage with the Monitor to try to find a solution. He has also refused multiple suggestions to retain counsel, appears to fundamentally misunderstand the relationship among DigiFlex, 7-Eleven, and Wallace & Carey, despite this relationship having been explained to him on numerous occasions. Wallace & Carey is a separate legal entity from 7-Eleven and is subject to these CCAA Proceedings. Wallace & Carey and all parties that contract with it (including 7-Eleven and DigiFlex) do so subject to the terms of the ARIO and the Transaction Documents, including the TSA.
5. At this time, DigiFlex remains contractually bound to provide services to Wallace & Carey pursuant to the DigiFlex Agreements and the ARIO, regardless of 7-Eleven's role in funding that business.

6. Mr. Mardukhi has been explicit that DigiFlex will be terminating the DigiFlex Agreements effective January 1, 2025, and that he will not comply with any Court order issued which would require continuation of the DigiFlex Agreements.
7. The Monitor is seeking urgent relief from the Court as DigiFlex's conduct, if not addressed immediately, would have a profound and detrimental impact on Wallace & Carey's entire supply chain and its ability to operate. In the event Wallace & Carey's access to the Software or services provided under the DigiFlex Agreements is disrupted, service to hundreds of 7-Eleven stores from Ontario to British Columbia, which make up the bulk of Wallace & Carey's business, would be significantly and immediately impacted.
8. As noted in paragraphs 32 to 37 of the Brief of the Monitor filed in conjunction with this Report, other suppliers in this proceeding have refused to comply with the ARIO and have been judicially sanctioned with multiple cost awards. The Monitor is respectfully of the view that the conduct of Mr. Mardukhi and DigiFlex is sufficiently serious to warrant an award of costs on a solicitor and own client scale in the amount of $35,000, in order to offset the costs directly incurred by the Monitor as a result of Mr. Madukhi's conduct.
9. In the event that Mr. Mardukhi does not comply with the ARIO in the future, or does not comply with any order of this Honourable Court arising out of the within application, the Monitor intends to return to Court on an emergency basis. Should such an appearance be required, the Monitor anticipates that it will seek an order of contempt as against Mr. Mardukhi and may request his imprisonment until such contempt is purged.

6.0 Conclusion

Digiflex Information Systems Inc.
(hereinafter "Digiflex")

and

Wallace & Carey Inc.
(hereinafter "Customer")

THIS AGREEMENT WITNESSES the mutual terms and conditions upon and subject to which Digiflex is prepared to grant to Customer a non-transferable, non-exclusive, perpetual License of certain computer application software owned by Digiflex.

- 1. PACKAGE. For the purposes of this Agreement, the expression "Software" shall mean and include the application computer program(s) described below (Table 1); and other supporting materials and documentation furnished by Digiflex to Customer with such programs, and "Package" shall mean the Software and the Supporting Documentation and any enhancements thereof.

QTY	APPLICATION AND DESCRIPTION	DESIGNATED EQUIPMENT (TYPE/SER.NO./LOCATION)	OPERATING SYSTEM VERSION
1	ProCLASSBI Business Intelligence Suite	X64 processors	Windows Server 2012

2. GRANT OF LICENSE TO USE.

- A. Digiflex hereby grants to Customer a non-transferable, non-exclusive, perpetual License, one (1) copy of a machine executable version of the Software together with the Supporting Documentation under the terms expressed herein, effective on the date this Agreement has been executed by both parties. The Software may, if the Designated Equipment is inoperable, be temporarily transferred to a suitable and compatible backup computer having the same operating system(s) specified in Table 1 provided that Customer shall first give written notice to Digiflex setting out the particulars of the backup computer and indicating the date by which Customer expects the Designated Equipment to be operable.

- B. Customer may substitute a different computer system owned or leased by the Customer as the designated computer system hereunder provided prior written notice, specifying the model and serial number of the proposed substitute system, is given to Digiflex. Provided any new substitute system is a compatible system for the Software, Digiflex will provide one (1) machine executable version of the Package to Customer at the Designated Location within ten (10) days of written notice to Digiflex by the Customer setting out the particulars of the substitute computer and indicating the date by which Customer expects the designated equipment to be operable.

3. TERMS OF LICENSE AGREEMENT. This License Agreement shall commence upon its execution by the last of the parties to sign.
4. LICENSE TO USE FEE. The Customer shall pay to Digiflex a total of $300,000.00 (three hundred thousand dollars) for an unlimited-use License to Use Agreement. An initial payment of $150,000.00 (one hundred & fifty thousand dollars) was made to Digiflex on April 23, 2012, and the remaining balance is $150,000.00 (one hundred & fifty thousand dollars).

This unlimited License shall apply to the current Customer's business. New business acquisitions or startups are not covered under this unlimited use License.

5. LICENSE TERMINATION. If Customer breaches any of its obligations hereunder, or if the Customer becomes insolvent, files a petition in bankruptcy, or has filed against it an involuntary petition in bankruptcy, or has a receiver appointed over all or substantially all of its assets, then Digiflex may, at its option, if there are any amounts owing by Customer to Digiflex, immediately terminate the License To Use granted hereunder upon written notice to Customer. In case of receivership or bankruptcy the License To Use shall be continued provided the Receiver or Trustee in Bankruptcy assumes all of the Customer's obligations under this agreement. If the License To Use is so terminated, all the License fees paid hereunder will be deemed to have been paid for the use of the Package during the time it was in Customer's possession and Customer shall not be entitled to a refund of any portion of the License To Use fee. In addition, in the event of a breach by Customer of any of its obligations hereunder, Digiflex shall be entitled to seek equitable relief, including by way of injunction, to protect its interests herein, it being acknowledged by the Customer that Digiflex would suffer irreparable harm by any such breach and that damages would not be an adequate remedy.

In the event that Digiflex breaches any of its obligations, or if Digiflex becomes insolvent, or files a petition in bankruptcy, then the Customer may, at its option terminate the License To Use granted hereunder upon written notice to Digiflex.

In the event of a termination of the License hereunder, the Package and all copies thereof shall forthwith be returned to Digiflex or, at Digiflex's option, destroyed or erased from electronic memories or other storage devices and thereafter Customer shall deliver to Digiflex a letter, from an officer of the Customer, certifying that all copies of the Software and any code or listings produced by the Software have been destroyed, returned or erased and that the Customer has discontinued use of the Package.

6. TAXES. All prices mentioned in this Agreement are EXCLUSIVE of Provincial, Federal, and other taxes.
7. TRAINING. Instruction and training in the use of the Software on the Designated Equipment will be available on a time and materials basis, based on Digiflex's standard per diem rates then in effect in accordance with those outlined in Schedule B - Rate Schedule.
8. SOFTWARE MODIFICATIONS. In the event the Customer wishes to pursue modifications, enhancements or improvements to the Software other than those included under the terms of this Agreement, Digiflex would provide a cost estimate to the Customer. Work would commence upon acceptance of the Scope of Work and Price by Customer. All such modifications, enhancements and improvements shall be the property of Digiflex.
9. PRICING CHANGES. All rates specified in this agreement and any attachments, schedules, or enhancements are guaranteed for the initial 12 months of the term of this Agreement. Thereafter, Digiflex may increase such fees or charges by notifying Customer in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of increase. Customer agrees that said notifications, or copy thereof, will be considered an amendment to this Agreement. The percentage increase shall not exceed the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index for the same period as published by Statistics Canada for the City of Calgary, or, failing which, for the Province of Alberta or, failing which, for Canada.

- 10. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. The Customer agrees that Digiflex's liability to Customer or any third party arising out of or in any way relating to this Agreement shall be limited to the License To Use Fee and that under no circumstances shall Digiflex be liable for any special, direct or indirect, incidental or consequential damages of any nature whatsoever, including loss of use, loss of profits, revenue or business.

Customer acknowledges that its only remedy in the event of a program error shall be to require Digiflex to use best efforts to correct same and that Digiflex shall not be liable for any damages resulting from the occurrence of a program error however caused.

Except as expressly stated herein, Digiflex makes no warranties, express or implied, concerning the Package, and expressly disclaims and excludes any warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose.

- 11. CONFIDENTIALITY. Each party acknowledges that all material and information which has or will come into its possession or knowledge in connection with this Agreement or in the performance hereof, and in particular the terms and conditions of this agreement, consists of confidential and proprietary data, whose disclosure to or use by third parties will be damaging. Both parties, therefore, agree to hold such material and information in strictest confidence, not to make use thereof other than for the performance of this Agreement, to release it only to employees who need to know such information in the course of their employment, and not to release or disclose it to any other party. The obligation of both parties under this paragraph shall continue during and after the term of this License To Use agreement.

Neither Digiflex, nor Customer shall approach any employee of the other to provide employment services or consulting services to the other. This restriction shall continue for a period of one year after completion of the project. The company, which presently employs these individuals, may forego this restrictive covenant in writing by the approval of an officer of the company.

- 12. PROPRIETARY RIGHTS, TRADE SECRETS AND TITLE. Customer hereby acknowledges that the Package, any copies thereof and any updates, enhancements or modifications thereof, in whole or in part, and all copyright, patent, trade secret and other intellectual property and proprietary rights (collectively, "Proprietary Rights") therein, are and remain the valuable property of Digiflex. Customer agrees to communicate to any user of the Package Digiflex's Proprietary Rights by instruction, agreement or notice including but not limited to incorporating and maintaining Digiflex's copyright notice and proprietary warning on each copy of the Package. Customer acknowledges that the existence of any such copyright notice or proprietary warning shall not be construed as an admission or presumption of the publication of the Package. Notwithstanding anything else contained in this Agreement, Customer shall not be entitled to copy all or any part of the Supporting Documentation without Digiflex's prior consent, which consent may be arbitrarily withheld.

13. GOVERNING LAW. This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Alberta, Canada.
14. ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Agreement and attached Schedules including: Schedule A - Maintenance; Schedule B - Rate Schedule form part of this agreement and contain the entire Agreement between Customer and Digiflex herein of this date and supersedes all prior agreements, negotiations, representations and proposals, written and oral. Customer acknowledges and agrees that no agent, employee or other representative of Digiflex has authority to bind Digiflex to any obligation relating hereto not specifically set forth herein.
15. ASSIGNABILITY. This Agreement shall be binding upon and enure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Neither party shall assign its rights under this Agreement without first obtaining the written consent of the other, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld.
16. AUTHORITY. Each party has full power and authority to enter into and perform this Agreement, and the person signing this Agreement on behalf of each has been properly authorized and empowered to enter into this Agreement. Each party further acknowledges that it has read the Agreement, understands it, and agrees that the Agreement is binding upon the parties hereof, their successors and assigns.

17. NOTICE. Designated Equipment (meaning the computer hardware designated in the Software License To Use Agreement) in connection therewith as may be installed by Digiflex on its corresponding computer equipment. Digiflex's obligation to provide Maintenance Services shall terminate without notice to Customer if Customer shall fail to install the same release, or two previous updates, of the operating system as Digiflex shall have installed on its system, or if Customer shall install a more recent release of the operating system than Digiflex shall have installed.

- iii) Hotline Service. Digiflex shall provide Customer remote telephone access to Digiflex personnel on a 7 x 24 basis with respect to use of the Software. In providing such service, Digiflex will respond to a request from Customer, but not necessarily correct any error, within four (4) business hours of Customer's request.

- B. Digiflex representatives will have full access to the Software in order to effect the necessary Maintenance Services, and for these purposes Customer shall be responsible for providing all necessary ports, dial-in lines and compatible media at Customer's site and cost, and allow physical access to the Customer's site when required to perform maintenance On-Site.
 - C. Digiflex makes no express or implied warranties, including any with respect to merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose, with respect to the Maintenance Services. Digiflex does not represent or warrant that the Maintenance Services will be capable of achieving any particular result or results in the business or operations of Customer, or that the operation of the Software will be uninterrupted, or that all programming errors can be found in order to be corrected; however, Digiflex will use its best efforts to attempt to identify and correct such errors including, if appropriate in the circumstances, sending qualified personnel to Customer's business premises. In no event shall Digiflex be liable to Customer in damages, nor shall Digiflex be liable for damages in respect of special, incidental, indirect or consequential loss or lost profits, even if Digiflex has been advised of the possibility of such damages.
 - D. Customer agrees to read and be familiar with all Supporting Documentation provided by Digiflex with or in connection with the Software, and agrees to ensure that its users have sufficient operating knowledge of the Software. Customer acknowledges that there is no obligation on the part of Digiflex, except to the extent specifically set out herein, in the Software License To Use Agreement, or otherwise agreed in writing by Digiflex, to provide any training or instruction to Customer or its employees with respect to the Software.
 - E. Notwithstanding anything herein contained, if Digiflex determines in good faith in the course of performing any Maintenance Services that an error, problem or question raised by Customer in connection with the Software is a direct result of input of incorrect data or command by Customer, Customer shall reimburse Digiflex for its expenses in responding to Customer's inquiry and shall pay Digiflex a fee calculated at Digiflex's then current rates for such services.
5. MAINTENANCE CHARGES. The annual rate for Maintenance Charges shall be firm for the period of this Agreement. Subsequent annual Maintenance Charge renewals, as provided under paragraph 3, may be increased or decreased by Digiflex providing that Digiflex has given Customer written notice of such increase or decrease not less than thirty (30) days prior to the end of the then current term of the Maintenance Agreement. The percentage increase, if any, in annual Maintenance Charges over those for the preceding year shall not exceed the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index for the same period as published by Statistics Canada for the City of Calgary, or failing which, for the Province of Alberta, or failing which, for Canada.

In the event that Digiflex should breach the terms of this Maintenance Agreement, such breach not to be correct following thirty (30) days notice of such by Customer, Digiflex shall return to Customer fees paid annually in advance for Maintenance Services, calculated on a pro-rated basis.

Will these agreements be with Wallace & Carey or with 7-Eleven? I do not know if Wallace & Carey still exists (or will exist in 2025) as a legal entity.

Hi Mohammad,

Thank you for the note and yes, we would like to continue with both the license maintenance and the help desk support portion. 7-Eleven does not intend to buy net new license agreement. There is also no immediate intent or capacity to move to your new ERP system. Our attorneys are reviewed and confirmed that the existing Wallace and Carey contracts will be in full force and effect on its current terms., I would recommend checking with your internal legal department to make sure you are considering that when you send us the order form/invoice.

@Buchanan, Joshua Graham (Josh) can you please confirm the bill to for Mohammad.

Good day Anvaya,

It appears that for all intent and purposes Wallace & Carey no longer exists as a legal entity, or at best, it has become a division of 7-Eleven. The "Wallace & Carey transactions" that you mention below are almost all for 7-Eleven businesses.

We currently have two agreements with Wallace & Carey: A software Maintenance Agreement that started in May 2000, and a Helpdesk Level 2 support agreement that started in June 2008 (at $7,000 per month, more than 16 years ago) where we provide helpdesk support for both Digiflex products, the OpenVMS operating system, and the Itanium servers on a 7 x 24 basis.

We are awaiting advice regarding renewal of the existing Maintenance Agreement because a new License Agreement with 7-Eleven may be required before we can renew that agreement. Just as an aside, if 7-Eleven purchases a new license agreement, there will be no restrictions and 7-Eleven can transfer the Wallace & Carey business to a new instance of our ERP system under SEDCC and change its fiscal structure as needed.

The Helpdesk Level 2 support agreement is not directly related to our licensing agreement so we can offer renewal of that agreement to 7-Eleven for another year at $192,000 per year. If you are interested in renewing this agreement, please send me the 7-Eleven bill-to information and we will send you an invoice.

2. GRANT OF LICENSE TO USE.

A. Digiflex hereby grants to Customer a non-transferable, non-exclusive, perpetual License, one (1) copy of a machine executable version of the Software together with the Supporting Documentation under the terms expressed herein, effective on the date this Agreement has been executed by both parties. The Software may, if the Designated Equipment is inoperable, be temporarily transferred to a suitable and compatible backup computer having the same operating system(s) specified in Table 1 provided that Customer shall first give written notice to Digiflex setting out the particulars of the backup computer and indicating the date by which Customer expects the Designated Equipment to be operable.

B. In addition, in the event of a breach by Customer of any of its obligations hereunder, Digiflex shall be entitled to seek equitable relief, including by way of injunction, to protect its interests herein, it being acknowledged by the Customer that Digiflex would suffer irreparable harm by any such breach and that damages would not be an adequate remedy.

Thereafter, Digiflex may increase such fees or charges by notifying Customer in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of increase. The percentage increase shall not exceed the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index for the same period as published by Statistics Canada for the City of Calgary, or, failing which, for the Province of Alberta or, failing which, for Canada.
10. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. The Customer agrees that Digiflex's liability to Customer or any third party arising out of or in any way relating to this Agreement shall be limited to the License To Use Fee and that under no circumstances shall Digiflex be liable for any special, direct or indirect, incidental or consequential damages of any nature whatsoever, including loss of use, loss of profits, revenue or business.

The obligation of both parties under this paragraph shall continue during and after the term of this License To Use agreement.

Neither Digiflex, nor Customer shall approach any employee of the other to provide employment services or consulting services to the other. This restriction shall continue for a period of one year after completion of the project. The company, which presently employs these individuals, may forego this restrictive covenant in writing by the approval of an officer of the company.

- 12. PROPRIETARY RIGHTS, TRADE SECRETS AND TITLE. Customer hereby acknowledges that the Package, any copies thereof and any updates, enhancements or modifications thereof, in whole or in part, and all copyright, patent, trade secret and other intellectual property and proprietary rights (collectively, "Proprietary Rights") therein, are and remain the valuable property of Digiflex. Customer agrees to communicate to any user of the Package Digiflex's Proprietary Rights by instruction, agreement or notice including but not limited to incorporating and maintaining Digiflex's copyright notice and proprietary warning on each copy of the Package. Customer acknowledges that the existence of any such copyright notice or proprietary warning shall not be construed as an admission or presumption of the publication of the Package. Notwithstanding anything else contained in this Agreement, Customer shall not be entitled to copy all or any part of the Supporting Documentation without Digiflex's prior consent, which consent may be arbitrarily withheld.

4. MAINTENANCE SERVICES
 - A. Digiflex shall provide the following services during the term hereof:
 - i) Operating System Compatibility. Customer agrees to accept, implement and install all Updates provided to Customer under subparagraph (ii), as well as the same release or version of the Designated Equipment (meaning the computer hardware designated in the Software License To Use Agreement) in connection therewith as may be installed by Digiflex on its corresponding computer equipment. Digiflex's obligation to provide Maintenance Services shall terminate without notice to Customer if Customer shall fail to install the same release, or two previous updates, of the operating system as Digiflex shall have installed on its system, or if Customer shall install a more recent release of the operating system than Digiflex shall have installed.

- ii) Updates. Digiflex shall provide to Customer any Updates for the Software when such Updates are developed or published by Digiflex and made generally available to other licensees of the Software at no additional cost. Any New Modules developed or published by Digiflex will be offered to Customer at Digiflex's then current rates. Subject to paragraph (E) below, Digiflex shall be responsible for its out-of-pocket costs in correcting a Software error at Customer's premises.

- iii) Hotline Service. Digiflex shall provide Customer remote telephone access to Digiflex personnel on a 7 x 24 basis with respect to use of the Software. In providing such service, Digiflex will respond to a request from Customer, but not necessarily correct any error, within four (4) business hours of Customer's request.

- B. - C. Digiflex makes no express or implied warranties, including any with respect to merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose, with respect to the Maintenance Services. Digiflex does not represent or warrant that the Maintenance Services will be capable of achieving any particular result or results in the business or operations of Customer, or that the operation of the Software will be uninterrupted, or that all programming errors can be found in order to be corrected; however, Digiflex will use its best efforts to attempt to identify and correct such errors including, if appropriate in the circumstances, sending qualified personnel to Customer's business premises. In no event shall Digiflex be liable to Customer in damages, nor shall Digiflex be liable for damages in respect of special, incidental, indirect or consequential loss or lost profits, even if Digiflex has been advised of the possibility of such damages.
- D. Customer acknowledges that there is no obligation on the part of Digiflex, except to the extent specifically set out herein, in the Software License To Use Agreement, or otherwise agreed in writing by Digiflex, to provide any training or instruction to Customer or its employees with respect to the Software.
- E. Notwithstanding anything herein contained, if Digiflex determines in good faith in the course of performing any Maintenance Services that an error, problem or question raised by Customer in connection with the Software is a direct result of input of incorrect data or command by Customer, Customer shall reimburse Digiflex for its expenses in responding to Customer's inquiry and shall pay Digiflex a fee calculated at Digiflex's then current rates for such services.

5. MAINTENANCE CHARGES. The annual rate for Maintenance Charges shall be firm for the period of this Agreement. Subsequent annual Maintenance Charge renewals, as provided under paragraph 3, may be increased or decreased by Digiflex providing that Digiflex has given Customer written notice of such increase or decrease not less than thirty (30) days prior to the end of the then current term of the Maintenance Agreement. Hi Cliff,

This will have to be a new program that goes through 4 separate tables and zeroes out the retail price/margin field in all records; estimate is 12 hours.

However, currently we do not have any maintenance or licensing agreements with 7-Eleven Distribution Company of Canada (SEDCC) and the Wallace & Carey agreement have not been in effect for some time. We passed on new agreements to SEDCC a few weeks ago and they have not paid our invoices nor signed the new agreement.

While we wait a bit longer for this issue to be handled by SEDCC, we can do this job for you but at only our new SEDCC hourly rate of $250. Let me know if you want us to proceed.

Hi Cliff,

You should look at menu 18.1 to see all the retail price fields. A non-zero retail class must be in place via any of the 4 types mentioned earlier for the customer to be authorized to order the item. Other retail fields have no effect on authorization.

Hi Mohamad,

Just want to double check on this first just in case we are missing something, does zeroing out any of the below affect customer ability to order the product or anything else? They are trying to change the retail margin/suggested retail price only with this. As long as the retail record exists even if set to zero that won't affect the ability to order, or output in the 18.19 pricing files.

There are 4 types of retail price records/tables:

1. Customer-group and Item-group
2. Customer and Item-group
3. Customer-group and Item
4. Customer and Item

The ones below are type 3, is that the only type to be zeroed?

Hi Cliff,

The word “remove” was confusing because if we remove all retail records, no one will be able to order anything.

Can you specify the fields in menu 18.1 that you want to change to zero?

What is the logic behind this change? (since a lot of effort has gone into specifying the existing retail prices in the system)

RE: DigiFlex Maintenance Renewal

Good afternoon Jason,

I just listened to your voice message and thought an email will be more efficient than calling you back.

First, we have not threatened any termination, rather deduced from the lack of response or even acknowledgement from 7-Eleven to multiple emails that they no longer need our software or services. We were expecting this to happen even before 7-Eleven was involved since Wallace & Carey decided to implement another ERP system almost 3 years ago. So we have been expecting this and have planned our future without Wallace & Carey for some time now, although we are ready and able to reorganize again if 7-Eleven decides to use our software.

As for who owns or controls Wallace & Carey, all indications are 7-Eleven has effectively taken over the operations for more than a year now. They even requested that we set up a new company named "7-Eleven Distribution Canada Corporation" (SEDCC) on our ERP system starting in January 2025 (see the 1st attached email from July 2024). We reminded them that our license is not transferable and that the new company requires a new license; they did not proceed with the request.

We then received an email from 3 people at 7-Eleven, with not a single Wallace & Carey person copied in, requesting a renewal of our maintenance agreement (see bottom of the 2nd attached email chain). We responded that our Helpdesk services agreement is the only one that is not directly related to a software license and could be renewed without delay. We then asked who we should bill for this service and they responded with "Seven Eleven Distribution Canada Corporation" (see top of the 2nd attached email). We issued the invoice right away and it remains unpaid as of today (overdue by more than a month).

Even according to paragraphs 15 and 16 of an affidavit on your web site (which we only discovered in November 2024), Wallace & Carey was purchased by 7-Eleven Canada in November 2023 (so our license agreement with Wallace & Carey should not have been in effect from that point in time):

15. Following the SISP, 7-Eleven Canada, Inc. (the "Purchaser") and the Applicants entered into a purchase and sale agreement (the "Sale Agreement"). The Sale Agreement was for the sale of the Applicants' personal property and equipment assets located in Alberta and British Columbia and the intellectual property, technology, software and systems relating to the entire Logistics Companies' logistics/distribution business across Canada. The Applicants are continuing to operate in various provinces across Canada, including BC, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Ontario.

16. Pursuant to the Sale Agreement and concurrent with the closing of that transaction, the Applicants and the Purchaser entered into a transition services agreement ("TSA") pursuant to which Wallace & Carey continues to provide logistics services to the Purchaser in accordance with the terms and conditions contained therein. Pursuant to the TSA, the Purchaser is required to fund substantially all of Wallace & Carey's and CM I's costs from and after the effective closing time, being 12:01 a.m. on November 19, 2023.

We had an excellent relationship with Wallace & Carey for over 23 years and this has been reflected in our extremely favourable rates and exceptional service levels. Our license agreement with Wallace & Carey explicitly states that it is not transferable in its very first paragraph, and our special rates do not apply to 7-Eleven.

It appears that 7-Eleven did not realize our license agreement is not transferable until we reminded them of this fact. They now want to pretend they are Wallace & Carey to avoid paying licensing and maintenance fees.

We have no desire to take this matter to litigation and hope that 7-Eleven does the right thing by signing our license agreement (sent on November 12, 2024), and pays our 3 overdue invoices. But we are ready and confident to proceed otherwise if needed.

If you respond, please do so via email as I often do not pick up phone calls from numbers that are not in my contacts list.

Dear Sir:

Re: Court File Number 2301-08305
ITMO the Compromise or Arrangement of Wallace & Carey Inc., Loudon Bros Limited and
Carey Management Inc. (the “CCAA Proceedings”)
Software License Agreement between DigiFlex Information Systems Inc. (“DigiFlex”) and
Wallace & Carey Inc. (“WCI”) dated August 19, 2013 (the “Agreement”)

We are counsel to KSV Restructuring Inc. in its capacity as Court-appointed Monitor (in such capacity, the “Monitor”) of WCI, Loudon Bros Limited (“LBL”), and Carey Management Inc. (“CMI” and together with WCI and LBL, the “Companies”). We write further to various email exchanges between yourself and representatives of WCI and/or 7-Eleven Canada, Inc. (“7-Eleven”), and in particular, your emails dated September 9, 2024, November 4, 2024 and November 25, 2024 (the “Renewal Emails”).

We are not aware of DigiFlex having retained legal counsel on this matter. However, we strongly encourage you to do so.

In your email correspondence dated November 4, 2024 you state that “...Wallace & Carey became a division of 7-Eleven as of November 2023...”. This is incorrect. During the course of the CCAA Proceedings, subject to the terms of the Amended and Restated Initial Order granted by the Court of King’s Bench of Alberta (the “Court”) in the CCAA Proceedings on June 30, 2023 (the “ARIO”), WCI has continued to operate in the ordinary course of business. While 7-Eleven is currently funding the WCI business during the CCAA Proceedings pursuant to a Transition Services Agreement dated November 21, 2023, 7-Eleven is not the subject of the CCAA Proceedings, and the Agreement has not been assigned to 7-Eleven. Rather, WCI remains party to the Agreement, and 7-Eleven remains a separate legal entity from WCI.

We wish to direct your attention to paragraph of the ARIO, pursuant to which suppliers are compelled to provide services to WCI during the CCAA Proceedings in accordance with the terms of existing agreements. Paragraph 19 reads (emphasis added):

19. During the Stay Period, all persons having:

- (a) statutory or regulatory mandates for the supply of goods and/or services; or
- (b) oral or written agreements or arrangements with the [Companies], including without limitation all supply arrangements pursuant to purchase orders and historical supply practices, computer software, communication and other data services, centralized banking services, payroll services, insurance, transportation, services, utility or other services to the Business or the [Companies], are hereby restrained until further Order of this Court from discontinuing, altering, interfering with, suspending or terminating the supply of such goods or services as may be required by the [Companies] or exercising any other remedy provided under such agreements or arrangements. The [Companies] shall be entitled to the continued use of their current premises, telephone numbers, facsimile numbers, internet addresses and domain names, provided in each case that the usual prices or charges for all such goods or services received after the date of this Order are paid by the [Companies] in accordance with the payment practices of the [Companies], or such other practices as may be agreed upon by the supplier or service provider and each of the [Companies] and the Monitor, or as may be ordered by this Court.

Further, paragraph 18 of the ARIO reads (emphasis added):

18. During the Stay Period, no person shall accelerate, suspend, discontinue, fail to honour, alter, interfere with, repudiate, terminate or cease to perform any right, renewal right, contract, agreement, licence or permit in favour of or held by the [Companies], except with the written consent of the [Companies] and the Monitor, or leave of this Court.

A copy of the ARIO is enclosed for your reference.

The Renewal Emails make demand for renewal at a significantly increased price. Your proposed price increase and the termination by you of the Agreement is expressly prohibited by paragraphs 18 and 19 of the ARIO.

If DigiFlex continues to pursue either price increases or a termination of the Agreement, the Monitor will bring an application to hold DigiFlex in contempt of Court on the basis that those actions are contrary to the ARIO. In such a hearing, the Monitor would also seek costs payable by DigiFlex to WCI on a solicitor and client own basis, and potentially damages.

Notwithstanding that DigiFlex could be required by the Court to provide its services at the rates set out in the Agreement, WCI has advised the Monitor that it is prepared to engage in good faith discussions with DigiFlex, with the intention of negotiating a one-year renewal of the Agreement on such terms.

Please contact Jason Knight at jknight@ksvadvisory.com not later than 5:00 PM (MT) on December 6, 2024 (the "Deadline") to discuss terms for renewal of the Agreement that are agreeable to all parties and in alignment with the ARIO.

If we do not hear from you prior to the Deadline, the Companies, with the support of the Monitor, will prepare a Court application to compel your cooperation.

Yours truly,

Subject: 7-Eleven / Wallace & Carey

Good afternoon Jason,

I just listened to your voice message and thought an email will be more efficient than calling you back.

First, we have not threatened any termination, rather deduced from the lack of response or even acknowledgement from 7-Eleven to multiple emails that they no longer need our software or services. We were expecting this to happen even before 7-Eleven was involved since Wallace & Carey decided to implement another ERP system almost 3 years ago. So we have been expecting this and have planned our future without Wallace & Carey for some time now, although we are ready and able to reorganize again if 7-Eleven decides to use our software.

As for who owns or controls Wallace & Carey, all indications are 7-Eleven has effectively taken over the operations for more than a year now. They even requested that we set up a new company named "7-Eleven Distribution Canada Corporation" (SEDCC) on our ERP system starting in January 2025 (see the 1st attached email from July 2024). We reminded them that our license is not transferable and that the new company requires a new license; they did not proceed with the request.

We then received an email from 3 people at 7-Eleven, with not a single Wallace & Carey person copied in, requesting a renewal of our maintenance agreement (see bottom of the 2nd attached email chain). We responded that our Helpdesk services agreement is the only one that is not directly related to a software license and could be renewed without delay. We then asked who we should bill for this service and they responded with "Seven Eleven Distribution Canada Corporation" (see top of the 2nd attached email). We issued the invoice right away and it remains unpaid as of today (overdue by more than a month).

Even according to paragraphs 15 and 16 of an affidavit on your web site (which we only discovered in November 2024), Wallace & Carey was purchased by 7-Eleven Canada in November 2023 (so our license agreement with Wallace & Carey should not have been in effect from that point in time):

15. Following the SISP, 7-Eleven Canada, Inc. (the "Purchaser") and the Applicants entered into a purchase and sale agreement (the "Sale Agreement"). The Sale Agreement was for the sale of the Applicants' personal property and equipment assets located in Alberta and British Columbia and the intellectual property, technology, software and systems relating to the entire Logistics Companies' logistics/distribution business across Canada. The Applicants are continuing to operate in various provinces across Canada, including BC, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Ontario.

16. Pursuant to the Sale Agreement and concurrent with the closing of that transaction, the Applicants and the Purchaser entered into a transition services agreement ("TSA") pursuant to which Wallace & Carey continues to provide logistics services to the Purchaser in accordance with the terms and conditions contained therein. Pursuant to the TSA, the Purchaser is required to fund substantially all of Wallace & Carey's and CM I's costs from and after the effective closing time, being 12:01 a.m. on November 19, 2023.

We had an excellent relationship with Wallace & Carey for over 23 years and this has been reflected in our extremely favourable rates and exceptional service levels. Our license agreement with Wallace & Carey explicitly states that it is not transferable in its very first paragraph, and our special rates do not apply to 7-Eleven.

It appears that 7-Eleven did not realize our license agreement is not transferable until we reminded them of this fact. They now want to pretend they are Wallace & Carey to avoid paying licensing and maintenance fees.

We have no desire to take this matter to litigation and hope that 7-Eleven does the right thing by signing our license agreement (sent on November 12, 2024), and pays our 3 overdue invoices. But we are ready and confident to proceed otherwise if needed.

If you respond, please do so via email as I often do not pick up phone calls from numbers that are not in my contacts list.

Importance: High

Good day,

Our multiple emails and invoices to 7-Eleven were ignored for weeks, and now we have this threatening letter from a legal team. As a result, we have decided that we will not waste any more time on this matter, and we will not engage our lawyer. The best (or worst) that you can do is to force Digiflex into bankruptcy which will then seriously jeopardize 7-Eleven and Wallace & Carey operations.

This whole process is an abuse of the CCAA. If the judge in this case was aware of just the 2 facts below, they would prevent any further extensions (and likely question past extensions):

1. On July 4, 2024 we were asked to set up a whole new company on our ERP system, while continuing with the Wallace & Carey ERP system as is. This is not an act for a company under creditor protection.
2. On December 4, 2024 we were asked to allow for up to 4000 new accounts in our General Ledger system, an almost 100% increase from pre-CCAA numbers. Again, not an act for a company under creditor protection.

Going forward, we see only 2 options:

1. Our license agreement for 7-Eleven Distribution Canada Corporation (SEDCC), sent on November 12, 2024, is signed and our 3 overdue invoices are paid by December 20, 2024. SEDCC will then have the legal right to use our ERP as they see fit, for as long as they need, and they will have the same services and service levels we have provided to Wallace & Carey for over 24 years. Or,
2. We will continue to provide our support services to ensure continuous operation of our ERP system until January 1, 2025 and then our support/maintenance/helpdesk services will end.

This is certainly not how we wanted our long-term relationship with Wallace & Carey to come to an end. We had expected that Wallace & Carey would have finished implementing the replacement for our ERP system and that we would have parted ways amicably a year or more ago.

7-Eleven is likely thousands of times bigger than Digiflex but our small size does not mean we can be pushed around. At this point we are ready to take this all the way to shutting down Digiflex rather than provide our software and services under threats and intimidation.

Good afternoon Jason,

I just listened to your voice message.

Unfortunately a conversation between us will not help since our problem is not with you or your firm or with whatever is left of Wallace & Carey. Rather, our problem is with 7-Eleven that do not understand they have no legal right to use our software without first purchasing a software license, and signing our License and Maintenance Agreement that was passed on to them back in November.

Good morning Heather,

I just received the email below threatening court action to force us to provide support to 7-Eleven, even though we have never had a license or maintenance agreement with them. I had told them last week that should they proceed with court action, and regardless of its outcome, that we will not provide support beyond January 1, 2025.

This note is to let you know that we will take our systems through the usual calendar year-end processes (please confirm if you want us to do so) and then we will no longer be able to provide maintenance or helpdesk services after January 1, 2025.

7-Eleven will then continue to risk using our software systems without a license.

Good day,

Since you have decided to proceed with court action (see email below), this is our formal notice that we will stop our support, maintenance and helpdesk services on January 1st, 2025. This will be the case regardless of the court outcome.

In the event that Digiflex breaches any of its obligations, or if Digiflex becomes insolvent, or files a petition in bankruptcy, then the Customer may, at its option terminate the License To Use granted hereunder upon written notice to Digiflex.

In the event of a termination of the License hereunder, the Package and all copies thereof shall forthwith be returned to Digiflex or, at Digiflex's option, destroyed or erased from electronic memories or other storage devices and thereafter Customer shall deliver to Digiflex a letter, from an officer of the Customer, certifying that all copies of the Software and any code or listings produced by the Software have been destroyed, returned or erased and that the Customer has discontinued use of the Package.

Dear Sir:

Re: Court File Number 2301-08305
ITMO the Compromise or Arrangement of Wallace & Carey Inc., Loudon Bros Limited and
Carey Management Inc. (the "CCAA Proceedings")
Software License Agreement between DigiFlex Information Systems Inc. ("DigiFlex") and
Wallace & Carey Inc. ("WCI") dated August 19, 2013 (the "Agreement")

As you are aware, we are counsel to KSV Restructuring Inc. in its capacity as Court-appointed Monitor (in such capacity, the "Monitor") of WCI, Loudon Bros Limited ("LBL"), and Carey Management Inc. ("CMI") and together with WCI and LBL, the "Companies"). We write further to various email exchanges between yourself and representatives of WCI and/or 7-Eleven Canada, Inc. ("7-Eleven"), and in particular, your email dated December 11, 2024 (the "Termination Email").

We understand DigiFlex has refused to retain legal counsel on this matter. However, we continue to strongly encourage you to do so.

On December 3, 2024 you received our letter which explicitly notified you that your interference with WCI's agreements and subsequent termination of the same are in breach of the terms of the Amended and Restated Initial Order (the "ARIO") granted by the Court of King's Bench of Alberta (the "Court"). You have also been advised repeatedly that your actions are in breach of the ARIO. Your continued breaches have required the Monitor to request urgent time before the court on December 17, 2024, at which time we will seek an order which will enforce the terms of the ARIO; prohibit the actions you have threatened in the Termination Email and seek costs payable from you in the amount of $35,000 (the "Emergency Application").

The Termination Email has been affixed to this letter which will be submitted to the Court in advance of the Emergency Application. In the Termination Email, you have given formal notice that you will stop support, maintenance and helpdesk services on January 1st, 2025, regardless of the outcome of the Emergency Application.

Should you take the steps referenced in the Termination Email you will be in direct breach of an order of the Court. In that case, the Monitor will proceed on an emergency basis to the Court and intends to seek a further order citing DigiFlex and you personally in contempt of court under the Alberta Rules of Court rule 10.53(1) and (2). The punishments for civil contempt of court can include imprisonment until the contempt has been purged or up to 2 years and additional fines and costs. In determining an appropriate punishment for civil contempt, the Court considers aggravating factors, certain of which are present in this matter.

You hereby are on notice that should you fail to comply with any Court order arising from the Emergency Application on December 17, 2024, the Monitor will seek a declaration finding you in civil contempt of court. The Monitor will further seek an order for imprisonment until the contempt is resolved and full costs for such an application.

External - Potential security risk - Exercise caution

Good day,

Jeffrey Oliver continues to escalate this matter and there are no signs that anyone from 7-Eleven or Wallace & Carey get copied onto the correspondence.

The attached letter is particularly interesting in that it threatens me with a 2 year prison sentence. Hope you are still running a successful business when I get out of prison!
